At the last Student Council meeting, January 4th, the subject of cleaning up the campus was again brought up. It was stated that this can only be done with the cooperation of the entire student body.

The Student Council has been working to keep litter off of the ground. They considered having more trash cans around the school, but can't be sure if that's the answer; as, "most people just throw papers and such down without thinking."

BRUINS GET TROPHIES FOR CHRISTMAS

Have you seen the newest trophies in our Sports' trophy case?

One of them was won by our Varsity Basketball Team for placing third in the Mountain View Christmas Tournament. The other is ours through the efforts of approximately twenty true Bruins, alumni, and parents, who, with all of the excitement of Christmas, still found time to support our basketball team in the name of Buchser High School.

This is a very good example of the usual response of Buchser students toward many of our extra-curricular activities.

There must be some reason for this lack of spirit or enthusiasm — or whatever you may wish to call it — that makes Buchser students only partially support the outside activities of our school.

We cannot call ourselves true Bruins, unless our conscience says we have done all that we can toward bettering our school and promoting school spirit.

Consistenly doing exceptional work in art after three years of art class is scholar Jane Murai. Jane is one who is always helping out with her artistic ability whenever it is needed.

The cartoon in Mr. Stocking's office is one that Jane made for a cartoon contest last year.

"She sits there so quiet, then, all of a sudden, up pops an idea," stated the one who has been helping Jane in her ant. work, Mrs. Shaw.

Jane, an active member of the Art Club, is going to beauty college to use her artwork for designing hair styles.

Being a tall 5' 2" with brown eyes, black hair, Jane likes food. and above all, steak. "Blue Velvet" and Johnny Mathis rate very high on her list of favorites.

The happiest moment to be remembered is when she became flag girl. The time to forget is standing on the cold football field waiting for half time. Her most embarrassing moment would be too embarrassing to mention.

Jane very much enjoys listening to records as a pastime and bowling, also.

New Maps Add Spice To Language Dept.

The language department has acquired two new maps to put in the language rooms. One, a map of France, is printed in French. The other is a map of the Italian peninsula and is printed in Latin.

These maps will be used so that the language classes will be able to learn more about the country in which the language they are studying originated.

BRUISED BRUINS BATTLE PANTHERS

CAMPBELL, SUNNYVALE PICKED TO TOP RACE FOR GAGE TITLE

By FRAN ERROTA

(Sunnyvale Standard Sports Editor)

Seldom has a team gone into West-SCVAL basketball action with as strong backing as Campbell has for the 1961 race which got underway with six games last week.

We have to go along with the mob in picking Bert Robinson's Bucs. However, we do not think it will be a runaway.

The best battle appears to be for second place where most observers look for at least five teams to be battling for the runner-up laurels behind Campbell. We look for Campbell to win, but not before a stiff challenge from Sunnyvale and Buchser.

Buchser has a good chance to go all the way because it has size, can score and has a better bench than Campbell. Should anything happen to any of Campbell's regulars, the Bucs could be in trouble.

Sunnyvale plants its hopes on the phenomenal all-around antics of junior Eric Paulson who is accomplished in almost every phase of the game. He stands a shade under 6-feet, but can rebound with all those who tower over him.

Here is how we look at 1961 denby with predicted win-loss record in parentheses:

CAMPBELL (10—1) Deadly because of inconsistent shoot-shooters in Randy Hain and ing. Will make it tough for top Mike Smith and strong board olubs on their good nights. Don play from Jack Schraub and Ratzlaff and Fred Scott best Craig Morton. Talent drops off sharply after first unit and this dangerous close in. Rich Gutiermay hamper Bucs. Coached by Bert Robinson:

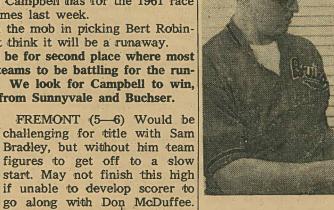

SUNNYVALE (9-2) Studded with inexperienced sophomores and juniors but have best individual player in league in Eric Paulsor, one destined to become the best in league history. games may win more than they Won eight straight before dropping first practice start, largely on the talents of junior Paulson. JETS BLAST BUCHSER TO END TITLE HOPES

Crushed by Cupertino and smashed by Sunnyvale, Buchser's varsity cagers must rebound in Friday's big game against Santa Clara High or resign themselves to battling it out for the SCVAL cellar with winless Saratoga.

Winner of the Bruin-Panther clash will retain an outside chance for the loop crown and a fair shot for a first division berth.

Heralded Eric Paulson proved himself an all-league certainty as he netted 23 points in leading the Jets to an easy 51-28 win over the Bruins in Sunnyvale last Friday night.

The Bruins went 14 minutes and ten seconds before scoring their first field goal and were behind 26-9 at halftime.

Buchser's Bees were also smothered by the Jets, 45-31, but Coach George Wagner's Outstanding for the undefeated Jayvees was the rebounding of Steve Harter and cool free throw shooting of Scott Thompson who netted five straight in the fourth quarter. Ed Quintel, Carl Stuart, and Ken Pierce also turned in top performances.
